

BADET CLÉMENT

OPEN WINEDEED

Founded in 1995 by Laurent and Catherine Delaunay, two winemakers of Burgundian origin, Badet Clément is specialized in the production and marketing of brand and estate wines hailing principally from France's Burgundy, Rhone Valley, Languedoc and Provence regions.

The company is especially known for "Les Jamelles", its flagship brand of varietal wines from Pays d'Oc, and its signature ranges of high-end wines: "Abbotts & Delaunay" from the Languedoc and "Edouard Delaunay" from Burgundy. Based in Burgundy with its head office located in Nuits-Saint-Georges, the company manages production at its various sites mainly located in Languedoc and Burgundy: a winery and ageing cellar in Marseillette, a winery (Aude), cellar and blending facility in Monze (Corbières), grape production and vinification at Domaine du Trésor in Ouveillan (Aude), grape production at Domaine de la Métairie d'Alon in Limoux (Aude), a winery and ageing cellar at L'Etang-Vergy (Côte d'Or).
